LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Some papers seem happy when another paper passes in its checks.

The delicate pineapple is now finding its way to market from Florida.

Mr. H. S. Chambers is home from a visit to Tampa.

Mr. Louis W. Duval made a business visit to Tampa this week.

Capt. Joe Crevasse, of Port Inglis, was in Ocala Tuesday.

Mr. Grant McCall, formerly an Ocala citizen, is in town.

Dr. and Mrs. Lisk, of Connor, are spending several days in Ocala.

The municipal campaign now on in Jacksonville is making itself interesting for the newspapers.

Dr. Griffith, City Marshal Keen and Mr. Robert Sanders, represented Dunnellon in Ocala Wednesday.

Mr. J. Stewart Lewis, formerly of this county, but now of Tallahassee, is among our visiting Elks.

Mr. Harry Cline will resign his place at the Seaboard on June 1st to accept a position with his father.

Mrs. John O. LaFontissee, of Jacksonville, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. J. Knight.

Mrs. Jack Camp and baby accompanied Mr. Camp to the mines at Dunnellon Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. C. H. Barnes, lessee of the convicts, is making preparations to build a fine residence in Jacksonville.

All the druggists but one in Tallahassee have been arrested for selling liquor in violation of law. Even dry counties have their troubles.

Mr. Lee Miller has bought a lot on Fort King and will soon be living in a home of his own.

Arthur S. Harris, of Valdosta, is so familiar a figure in Ocala that he begins to look like one of us.

Miss Blanche Hall, of Candler, formerly a teacher in the Ocala school, is spending a few days here with friends.

The commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Ocala High School will take place at the armory Friday night.

Mr. C. J. Joseph, who travels all over the state, says Ocala has less mosquitoes than any town in Florida.

Mrs. G. C. Crom is in Jacksonville, where she is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hampton.

Mrs. J. N. Sydboten, of Thomasville, Ga., is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan W. Hunt, on Fort King avenue.

Mr. W. W. Haralson, of Troy, Ala., after a short visit in Ocala with his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. A. Burford, returned home Wednesday.

Hon. C. M. Brown has written to Dr. W. C. Lindsay for his church letter, and he is now a citizen of Miami right.

Mr. R. W. Halliday, town marshal of Citra, formerly of this city, was in town Wednesday and was a pleasant caller at this office.

We acknowledge enjoyable visits from the following Elks: M. Garcia, of Ybor City, Dr. Sanford W. Allen and Claude Munden, of Tampa.

Mr. Claude Munden, formerly an Ocala boy, was among the visiting Elks and was thus shaking hands with old friends.

Dr. T. K. Slaughter, Bellevue's mayor, and a member of the Ocala lodge of Elks, was here attending the first annual convention of this popular order.

Mrs. George A. Hough is visiting relatives in Union Springs, Ala. She will also visit friends in Dothan and Troy before returning home.

Mr. Louis Taffaletta is building a two story dwelling on the Harter lot fronting the residence of Mr. H. L. Anderson.

Mr. Christopher Hafele, for a long time a resident of Ocala, died at his home at Bronson last Sunday. He is pleasantly remembered in Ocala and his death is lamented.

The machine and repair shop of Messrs. Cline & Yonge is lit up by electricity of its own and things in that neighborhood are taking on a business look.

Mr. Beach, representing the United States government census department, is in the city for a few days and was a caller at this office yesterday.

Judge and Mrs. Blalock, of Cherry Lake, near Madison, are the guests of their daughters and son, Mrs. W. C. Bull, Mrs. G. L. Taylor and Dr. Fred Blalock.

Mr. J. Starr Sternberger, now of Gainesville, formerly of Ocala, is back with us on a visit. He has just returned from New York and says the world is moving along beautifully and radiantly.

All the carpenters, contractors, brick masons, lathers, plasterers and paperhangers continue busy in Ocala. If you want any work done you must speak weeks in advance. We are speaking from the card. The town is certainly expanding.

Stockholders' Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Withlacoochee and Wekiva Land company was held in the Montezuma hotel, Ocala, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, in response to a call published in this paper some time ago. Four-fifths of the shares were represented in person and by proxy.

Among those present were Rev. Dr. W. H. Gottwald, of Washington city; C. Y. Miller, of Leroy; Mrs. Henry Marcott, of St. Augustine, and Rev. G. F. Austin, of Dunnellon.

Promptly at the hour announced, the meeting was organized with Rev. G. F. Austin chairman, and Dr. Gottwald secretary.

An important act of the meeting was the election of a board of directors. Those elected were Capt. Henry Marcott, Fitzhugh McGrew, Geo. Gary, Dr. W. H. Gottwald, Warren H. Gottwald, Joseph W. Welsh, John V. Lyle, Robert Selden Huse. This new board will give entire satisfaction, as its members are thoroughly acquainted with every feature of the business that is committed to its care.

After spending some time here and in Dunnellon in investigating the affairs of the W. and W. Co., Dr. Gottwald left immediately after this meeting for Washington, where he goes to attend a meeting of the board of directors. He feels assured now that the business pertaining to the present interest of the company and its patrons will be brought to a satisfactory settlement as soon as the board meets.

Mr. W. K. Zawadski, Jr., to Graduate.

Mr. William Kosciusko Zawadski, Jr., of this city, who attends the East Florida Seminary at Gainesville, has sent his friends invitations to the commencement exercises of his school, May 19 to 24.

On Sunday, the twenty-first, Dr. W. C. Lindsay, of this city, will preach the baccalaureate sermon. The senior class, of which Mr. Zawadski is a member, will have their graduating exercises in the academic hall, Wednesday evening, May 25th. There are seven graduates, all of whom will deliver excellent orations and essays. The subject of Mr. Zawadski's oration is, "The Trophies of Militancy will not Suffer me to Slumber." He has made a most excellent record at the seminary and his Ocala friends feel sure that he will do himself very proud on his graduating night and wish for him much success.

Big Day at Inglis.

There will be an all day meeting at Inglis next Sunday, May 21st. Rev. G. F. Austin, of Dunnellon, will have charge of the services. The first service will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. The large boat shed, near the depot, will probably be used for the occasion. The ladies in and around Inglis will prepare dinner, which will be served at 12 o'clock under the shed, for all that attend.

Indications now point to a large attendance, as Mr. Austin is thoroughly advertising it. The efforts of those in charge will be great to make the occasion interesting and profitable. Everybody invited to come and be on hand by 10 o'clock.

City Affairs.

The citizens of Ocala will be glad to know that we will soon have an electric light service capable of supplying all demands made upon it, as the bonds have been sold, the money received, placed in the city treasury and the electric appliances ordered. The bonds netted $703.13 more than their face value.

All the city officers have been re-elected, and the city and her finances are in good shape.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At Tydings & Co., druggists, 25 cents.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

The court was engaged nearly all day Wednesday in the trial of the state of Florida against Adolphus Sewell and Emmett Marlow, two young boys living across the river near Connor, for shooting into the residence of Henry Mason and endangering the lives of his wife and children. It seems, however, that these young boys with some other boys, were merely shooting for instance, it being near Christmas time and they had no idea of doing harm. They were a considerable way from the house but some of the shots may have fallen on the house.

The jury deliberated for only a few minutes and returned a verdict of "not guilty" and the young boys went away happy.

The Silver Tea Friday.

The silver tea given at the armory Friday evening from five to ten o'clock was a particularly pleasant affair. It was given under the auspices of the Womans Home Mission society of the Methodist church, the special promoters being Mrs. W. H. Clark, Mrs. Durst and Mrs. J. A. Bouveir.

Quite a number of both gentlemen and ladies were present during the evening hours. Delicious refreshments were served, music enjoyed and the entire evening was very delightful.

The good sized silver offering that was received will help towards the repairs needed on the church building.

Pretty Nosegay for Miss Jefferson Bell.

In the current issue of the School Exponent, Brother Tom McBeath, whose fame as an English scholar, is as far reaching as that of John the Baptist for Gospel, had a lot of complimentary things to say about certain members of the press association last week, but Miss Jefferson Bell, of the Daily Capital, was the recipient of the prettiest nosegay of them all. In this, the professor of English displays the same taste of this editor, and we are only too sorry he did not let "out more" from his exhaustless fountain of knowledge.—High Springs Hornet.

Circuit Court.

Wednesday the case against C. W. Hambright, a railroad employee charged with attempting to bribe Justice W. O. Waid, occupied the greater portion of the day. He was found not guilty.

Charlie Roof, a young colored lad, was convicted of carrying concealed weapons.

There was no court yesterday. The case of Sandy Lockley, for killing a man at Horne's still, is set for Friday.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief become permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes, "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by all druggists. m

Mr. Alfred Beville, formerly of Jacksonville, now of Rocky Mount, N. C., has resigned his position as trainmaster with the Atlantic Coast Line. He has been in the railroad service for many years and his resignation is quite a surprise. Mr. Beville will return to Jacksonville, where he has accepted a position with the Naval Stores Export Company.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson, of Clarksville, Tenn., who for the past six months have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. L. Carney, have returned home. They made many friends during their stay in this city, who hope soon for a repetition of their visit.

Tampa Elks in Ocala.

A delegation of Tampa Elks leaves tonight over the Seaboard for Ocala, where the first annual convention of the Elks of Florida will be held.

The Seaboard will run a special Pullman on the train leaving here tonight at 8 o'clock.

The sleeper will be detached at Ocala and the Elks may remain in their berths until morning.

The Elks of Ocala will entertain the convention in various ways and the occasion is expected to be a pleasureable as well as beneficial one to Florida Elksdom.

Tampa furnishes the first president of the state organization of Elks, in the person of Col. M. B. Macfarlane, who will preside at the convention.—Tampa Tribune Tuesday.

From Mr. Finzel.

Mr. Anthony C. Finzel, of London, who spent two years at Lake Weir with his uncle, Mr. A. W. Allen, is now in New York City, where he goes upon the stage. In a letter to the editor, Mr. Finzel says:

Ocala shall always have a very warm corner of my heart.

It may interest you to know that I have contracted as leading tenor in Sam Peckets Operatic Co., for twenty weeks and hope to stay with them next season. I shall certainly be glad to be in harness again but hope to run down to Ocala on the first opportunity.

With very cordial wishes to you and the "Banner," I am,

Very sincerely yours,

ANTHONY C. FINZEL.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by all druggists. m

Mr. Hal G. Eagleton, of the firm of Eagleton & Price, of Tampa, is here on a business trip. Messrs. E. and P. are hustling young men and have just concluded a big real estate deal of ten business lots in West Tampa.

GEN. J. J. DICKISON.

(On the anniversary of his birthday.)
I think the gentle soul of him
Goes softly in some garden place,
With the same old smile time may not dim
Upon his face.

Now that his day of toil is through
I love to think he sits at ease,
With some old volume that he loved
Upon his knees.

He who so loved companionship,
I do not think walks quite alone,
Falling some friendly hand to slip
Within his own.

Those whom he loved aforeside still
I doubt not bear him company;
I think that laughter yet may thrill
Where he may be.

That God is gentle to his guest,
And therefore do I gladly say,
Surely the things he loved best
Are his to-day.

ONE WHO LOVED HIM.
The above pretty poem appeared in a recent issue of the Times Union.

Dr. E. H. Armstrong Coming.

Dr. E. H. Armstrong, the well known eye specialist and optician of Jacksonville, Fla., is making a professional tour of the state and will be in Ocala July 10 and 11. Full notice of his visit, with name of hotel at which he may be seen, will appear in later issues of the Banner. The doctor has no agents, but will be here personally. Keep the date in mind.

Baptist Picnic.

The Baptists will have their regular annual Sunday school picnic next Tuesday, May 23, at Lochloosa. The grounds are situated on beautiful Lake Lochloosa, and all who go may expect a big time. Fare 50 cents; children 25 cents.
